

Our in surgery whitening involves applying a special Whitewash 6 % hydrogen peroxide gel to the teeth and activating it with our Whitewash Beam light. The light activates the whitening gel and "kick starts" the whitening process. A special barrier is applied to protect the gums. The light is used for 45 minutes so treatment generally takes around 1 hour in total. We normally follow this up with a take home tray system.