

Our Whitewash tray system uses laboratory produced custom whitening trays. Impressions are taken in the surgery to allow production of accurately fitting whitening trays. We then provide a take home kit to use with the trays. A 6 % hydrogen peroxide gel is applied to the trays and then they are worn at home for normally 90 minutes a day. Treatment typically takes 2 to 3 weeks.