

We also offer whitening using our Whitewash whitening strips. These can be standard gel strips or dissolving strips. The standard strips are applied to the teeth at home and then removed after around 1 hour. The dissolving strips are applied to the teeth but then dissolve leaving a minty taste over about 30 minutes.

We suggest using the strips for "top ups" or for patients new to teeth whitening, wishing to start with a simple entry level treatment.